

[The Goods]

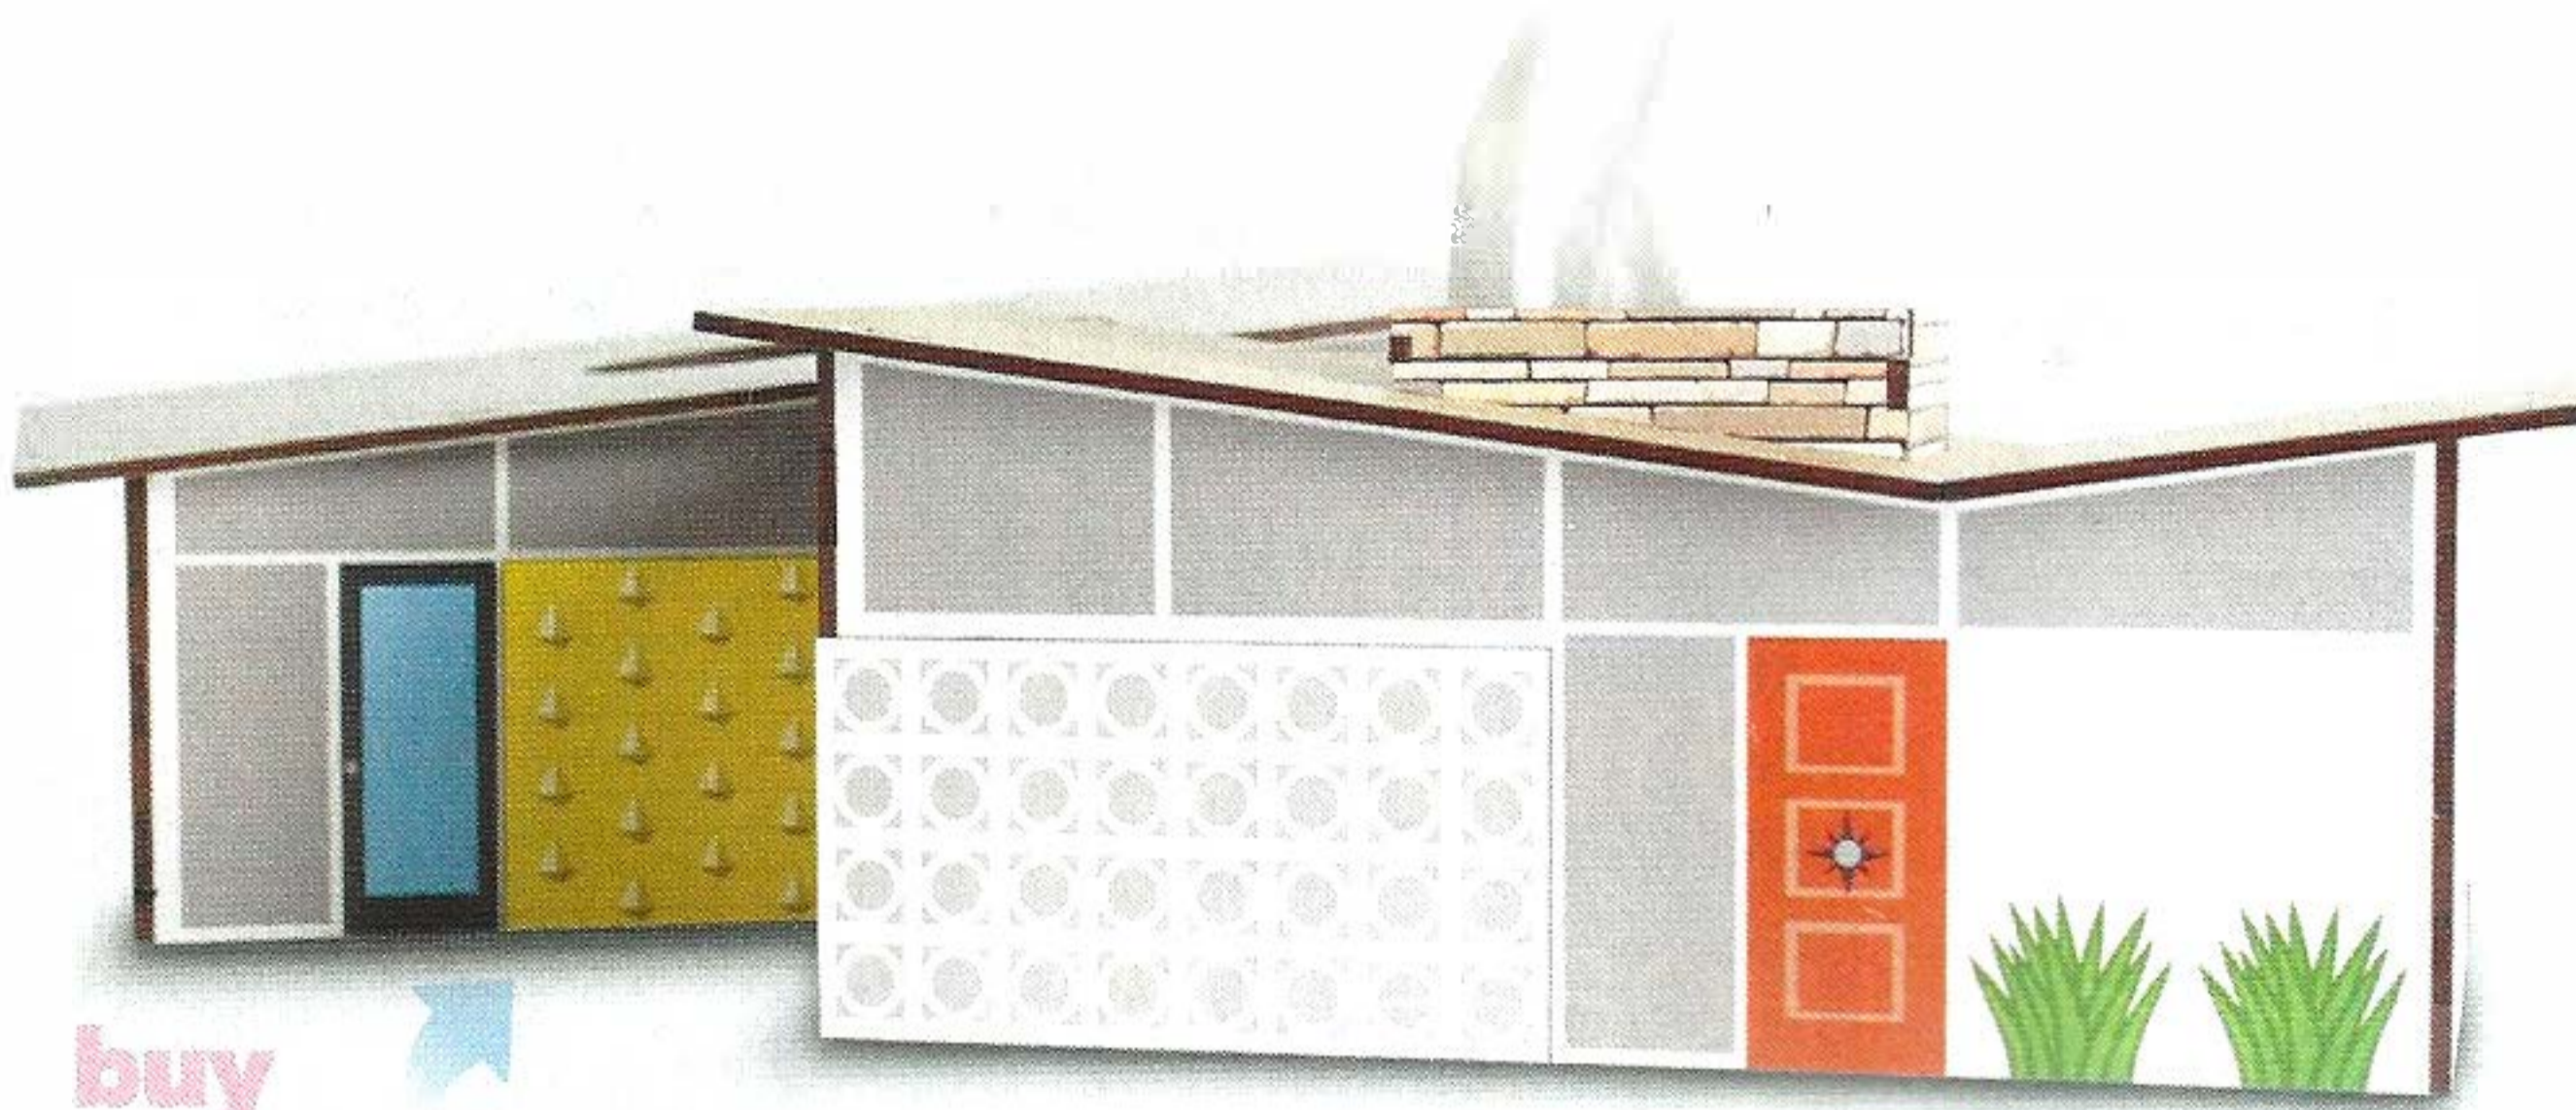

Mod Mecca

Coachella may be a few months away, but it's safe to say we already have desert fever. This year, consider checking out another area highlight: midcentury modern architecture. Art buffs and ordinary folks alike can get their fix yearround, since Palm Springs boasts a large concentration of the popular style. Here are some top picks to get you in the mod mood. —Elisabeth Abrahamson

sip

Order a colorful cocktail at Jake's, an American bistro located in the city's Design District. During Modernism Week (modernismweek.com), February 16–26, folks can score such old-school concoctions as a Pink Squirrel (pictured), a Sidecar, and a French 75. 664 N. Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs. (760) 327-4400; jakespalmsprings.com.

buy

Say hello to your new favorite bathroom accessory. These tissue box covers come in four different midcentury architectural models. Browse the boxes at Destination PSP's flagship store or find them online. $68. 170 N. Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs. (760) 354-9154; destinationpsp.com.

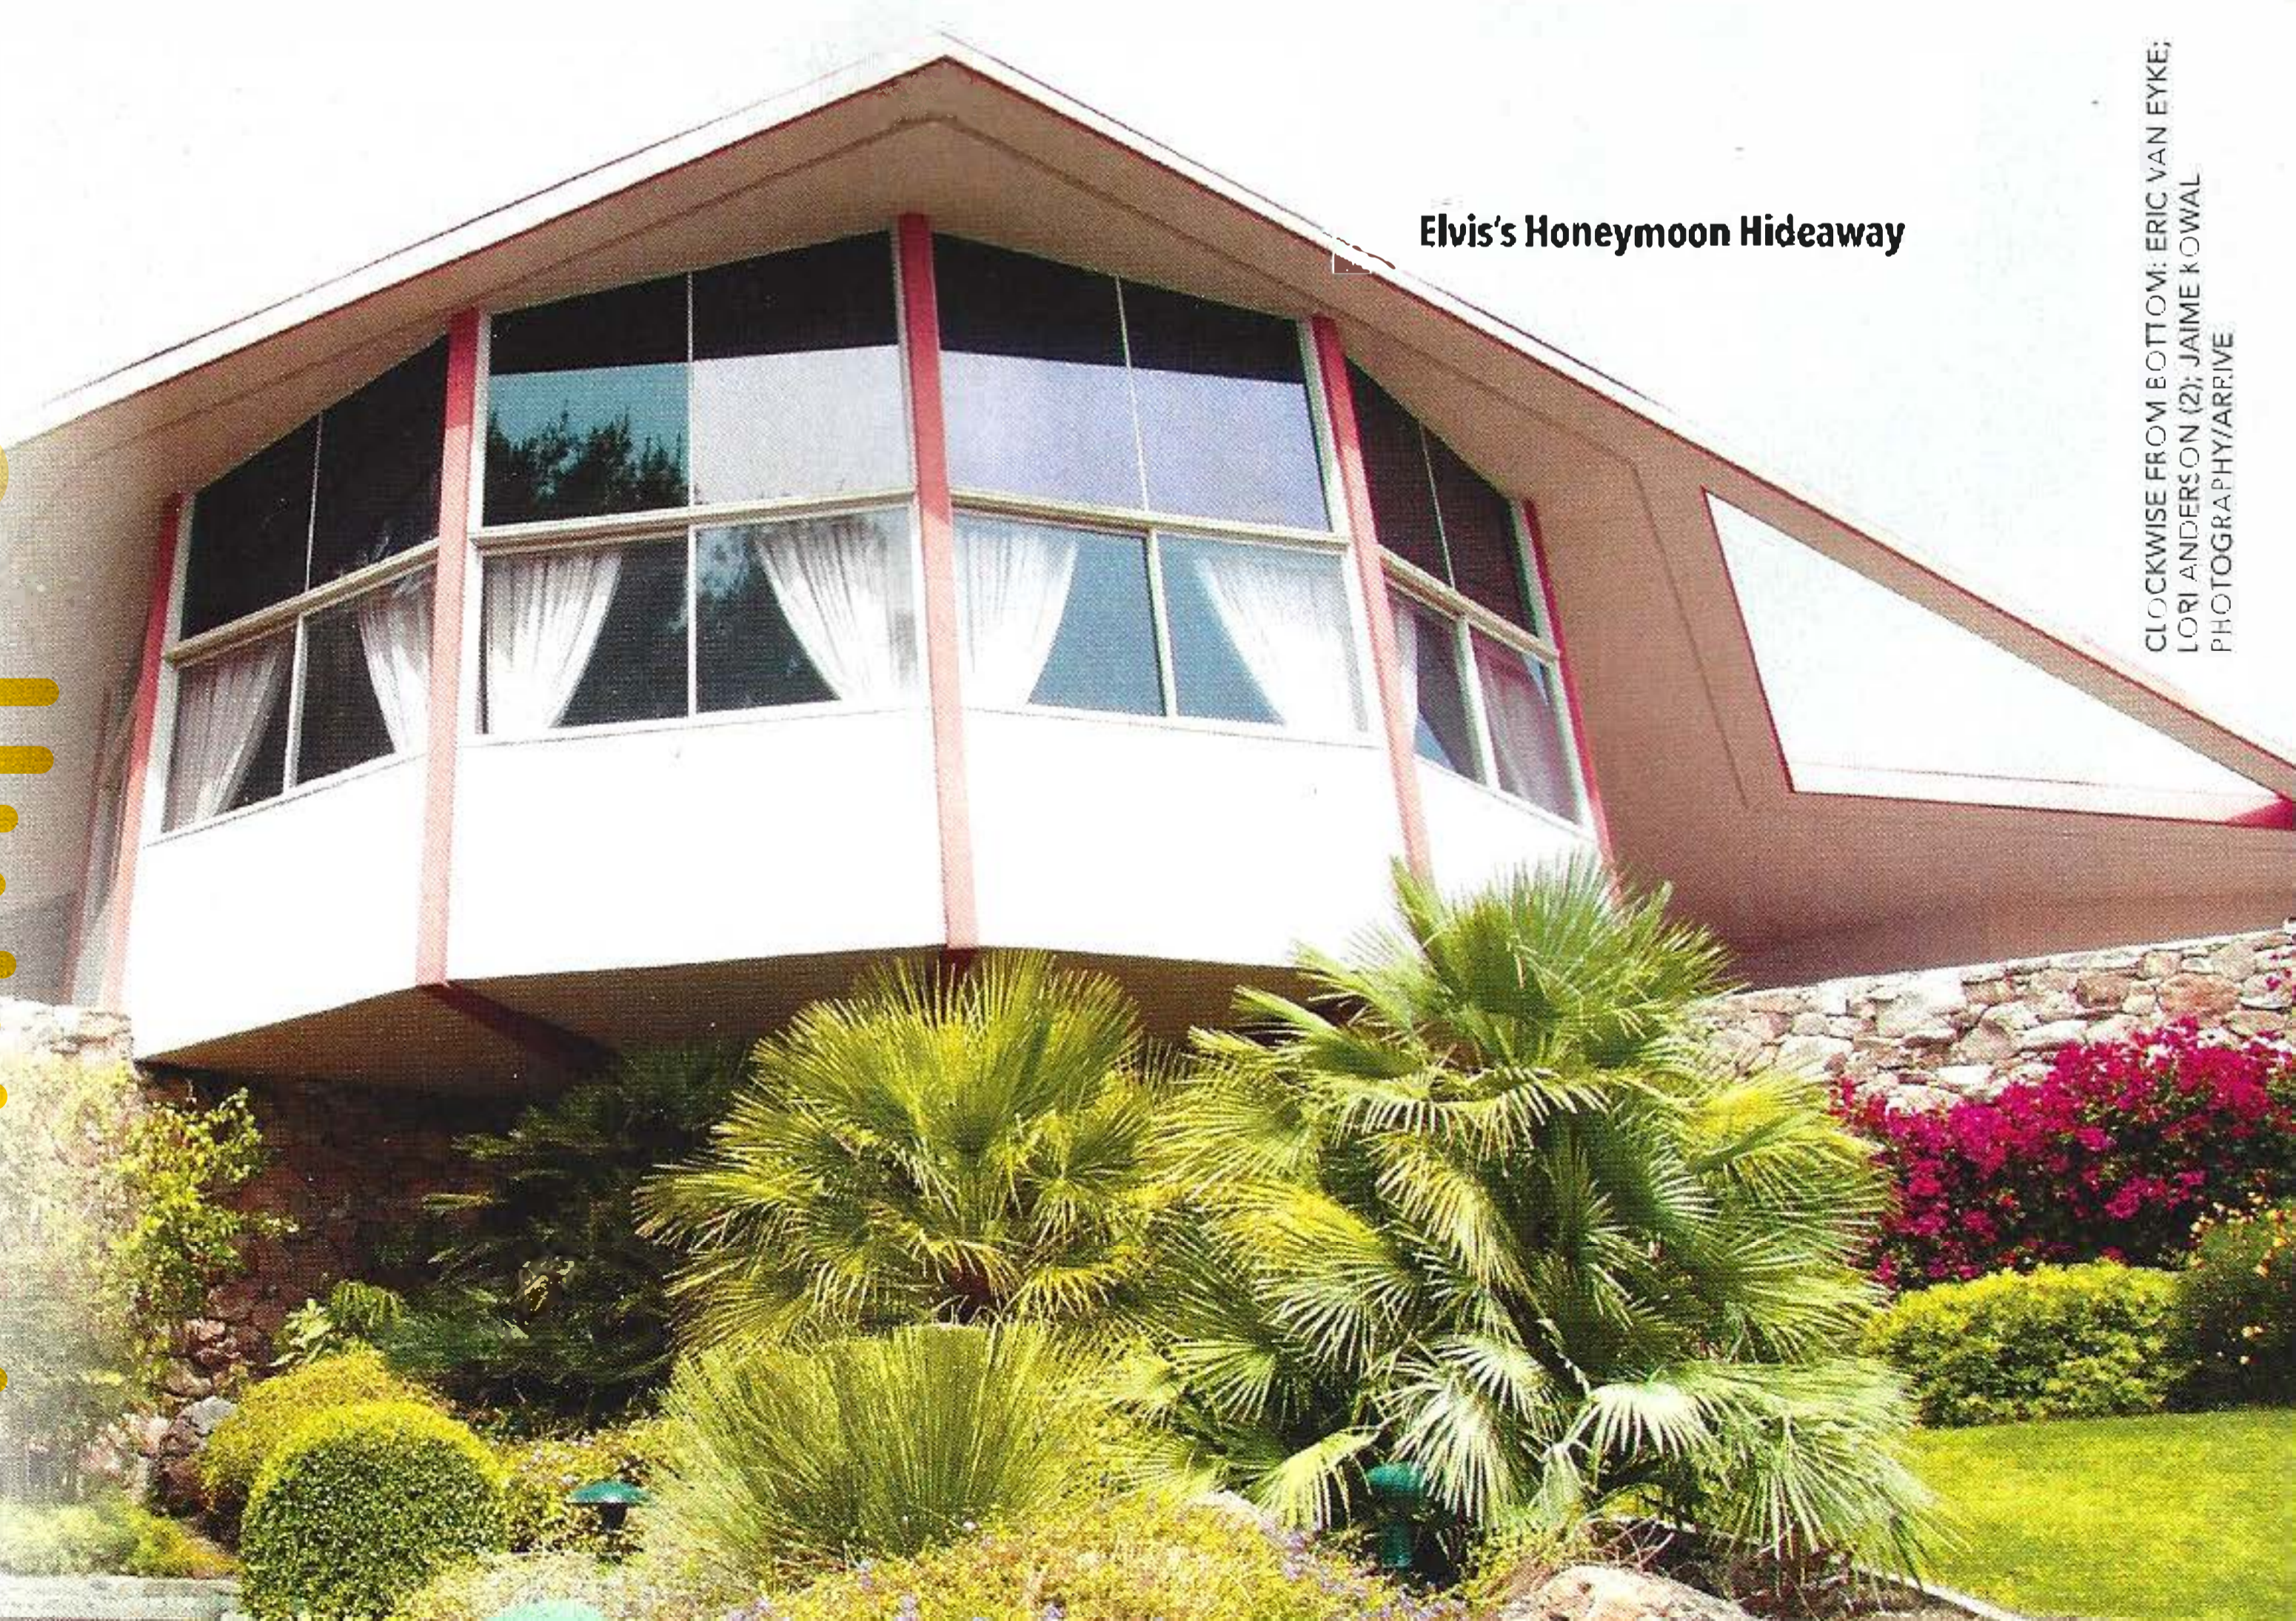

check in

The Arrive hotel opened in 2016 and offers guests a chance to stay in rooms with midcentury features such as butterfly or folded-plate roofs. Head to the pool, where you can lounge on bean sacks, play Ping-Pong, or chill in a cabana. The on-site ice cream parlor doubles as a gift shop that sells hip swag made by local artists. Rates start at $159. 1551 N. Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs. (760) 507-1650; arrivehotels.com.

tour

See the desert's architectural gems on the Modern Tour Palm Springs, led by local guide Michael Stern. Fans can visit the former homes of Frank Sinatra, Elizabeth Taylor, Elvis Presley, and more. For an additional fee, folks can go inside the iconic Albert Frey House II and check out the built-in boulder. Tours cost $150–$200 per person. (760) 904-0904; themoderntour.com.

Elvis's Honeymoon Hideaway

CLOCKWISE FROM BOTTOM: ERIC VAN EYKE; LORI ANDERSON (2); JAIME KOWAL PHOTOGRAPHY/ARRIVE